I/we agree and acknowledge the following:

The Cost-To-Build™ estimate is provided in good faith based on market information available to us at the time of print.

Actual construction costs for this house may differ based on site conditions, economic conditions, material selections, additional features, fixtures and fittings, builder/contractor selection, use of owners labour etc.

The Cost-To-Build™ estimate does not include land value, demolition, site preparation or excavation, external services more than 3m from the building, detached structures, decks, outside surfaces and landscaping, loose furniture, fittings or equipment, professional or legal fees.

The Cost-To-Build™ estimate is to be used for budget planning purposes only and is provided on the condition and understanding that it represents an estimate only of construction costs and is not to be regarded as a quote.
